

DARMMUSEUM

Presidential Pets: 1789-1945

C O A M O O L Y W O O L Y P O
O B N A N N Y A X P P J O O K
R T A K A S F N D B U U M L I
N V E R P U I F Q D C N B L N
W F Q C O B N A H F I O C Y G
A L M C L N S L M V N E I H T
L F O Q L N S A R E R B B Z U
L A S R O E K P W T P I P O T
I I A R E C I P R O C I T Y Y
S T M I G T A J R E N U J L R
M H P D G K T Q H E C T O R O
A F A D W B A A E K X K N D B
S U T P U F F I N S A T L X R
O L C L E B E A U K L C P E O
N C H Z C G R I Z Z L E B L Y

BARON SPRECKLE	CORNWALLIS	RECIPROCITY	SIAM	LADDIE BOY
SAM PATCH	KING TUT	POLLY	PUFFINS	LORETTA
GRIZZLE	VETO	HECTOR	MOOLY WOOLY	LE BEAU
JUNO	PUNCH	NANNY	FAITHFUL	FALA
	ROB ROY	APOLLO	MASON

DARMMUSEUM

There have been so many pets in the White House. Not only the most presidential puppies, but parrots, goats, horses, chickens, cats, lions, tigers, bears, and a few opossums too. The current White House pets are Major and Commander, two German Shepherds, and a gray tabby cat named Willow. Willow was taken home by the Bidens after jumping on stage at a rally in Pennsylvania in 2020. President Biden says Willow loves to sleep on his head!

Cornwallis (dog) – George Washington

Juno (dog) – John Adams

Grizzle (dog) – Thomas Jefferson

Polly (parrot) – James Madison

Sam Patch (horse)

Le Beau (dog) – John Tyler

Apollo (pony) – Zachary Taylor

Mason (pony) – Millard Fillmore

Punch (dog) – James Buchanan

Nanny (goat) – Abraham Lincoln

Faithful (dog) – Ulysses S. Grant

Siam (cat) – Rutherford B. Hayes

Veto (dog) – James A. Garfield

Hector (dog) – Grover Cleveland

Reciprocity (opossums) – Benjamin Harrison

Loretta (parrot) – William McKinley

Baron Spreckle (hen) – Theodore Roosevelt

Mooly Wooly (cow) – William Howard Taft

Puffins (cat) – Woodrow Wilson

Laddie Boy (dog) – Warren G. Harding

Rob Roy (dog) – Calvin Coolidge

King Tut (dog) – Herbert Hoover

Fala (dog) – Franklin D. Roosevelt